-- The MAILING DATE of this communication appears on the cover sheet with the correspondence address --

Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) OR THIRTY (30) DAYS, WHICHEVER IS LONGER, FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figure 7 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. Claims 1-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Karves et al (EP 1143667 A2).

Consider claims 1, 6, 9, 14, 17, 22 and 25-26, Karves et al teach a communication terminal equipment, method and storage medium comprising: data communication means for communication with internet (see Fig. 1); obtaining means for obtaining identifying information identifying a caller from call incoming information of incoming call notice (col. 14 lines 38-40); retrieving means for retrieving caller information relating to said caller on the basis of said identifying information obtained by said obtaining means (col. 14 lines 40-45); means for transmitting an obtaining request of said caller information to said internet from said data communication means when said caller information is not found (col. 14 lines 25-37, lines 45-49); and means for displaying said caller information retrieved by said retrieving means and said caller information obtained from said internet by feeding said obtaining request (col. 14 lines 49-52).

Consider claims 2, 7, 10, 15, 18 and 23, Karves et al teach a database accumulating said identifying information and said caller information, and said retrieving means retrieves said caller information from said database on the basis of said identifying information (col. 14 lines 40-45).

Consider claims 3, 8, 11, 16, 19 and 24, Karves et al teach a history database storing incoming call history to own communication terminal equipment, and said caller information obtained from said internet is stored in said history database (col. 20 lines 12-35).

Consider claims 4, 12 and 20, Karves et al teach wherein said identification information includes at least one of electronic mail address of said caller, telephone number and identification information (see col. 18 paragraph 0053).

Consider claims 5, 13 and 21, Karves et al teach at least one of a portable communication terminal performing wireless communication on said internet and a telephone unit performing wireless communication with said internet (see col. 13 paragraph 0037).
